The station conferencing feature links both lines by simply pressing the conference key so you can easily hold threeway calls or bridge together the colleague and customer as you discuss urgent projects. The handsfree operation and onhook dialing lets you take part in a conference call or oneonone conversation without ever lifting the receiver. With the M9417, you dont need to dedicate a line to a fax machine or modem. The Call Director feature lets you use distinctive ringing service to economically list separate numbers for your telephone and fax or modem. The M9417 detects the special ring and automatically routes the call to the proper device. For telecommuting or workathome scenarios, the M9417 lets you use one line for business and one for personal use. When connected to an appropriate ISDN device and a standard RJ11 jack, the M9417 can be used to access ISDN services which allows you to send or receive data files wile having a conversation on just one line.<http://www.kantoromega.pl/userfiles/ennovia-edc-11r-manual.xml>

Safety precautions

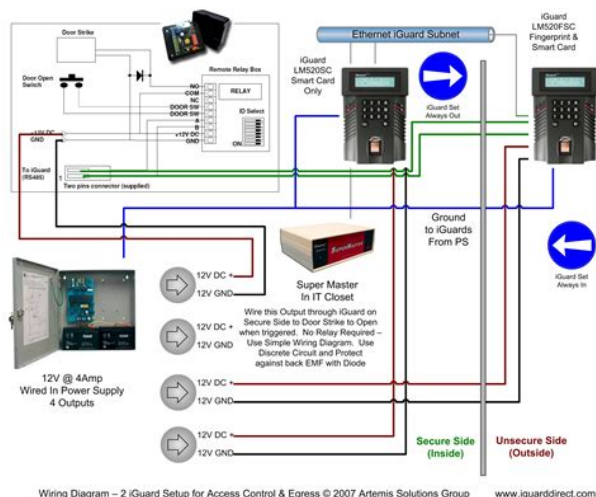

- Read this user guide and the safety precautions carefully before use. Explain their contents and the potential hazards associated with using the telephone to your children.
- Only use the mains unit supplied.
- Only use the approved, rechargeable battery pack, never a conventional (non-rechargeable) battery pack, as this could result in significant health risks and personal injury. Batteries should not be disposed of in general household waste. Observe the local waste disposal regulations, which you can find out about by contacting your local authority or the dealer you purchased the product from.
- The operation of medical appliances may be affected. Be aware of the technical conditions in your particular environment, e.g. doctor's surgery.
- Do not hold the rear of the handset to your ear when it is ringing. Otherwise you risk serious and permanent damage to your hearing. The handset may cause an unpleasant humming noise in hearing aids.
- Do not install the phone in a bathroom or shower room. The handset and base station are not splashproof.
- Do not use your phone in environments with a potential explosion hazard, e.g. paint shops.

Aims and Scope Archives of Psychiatric Nursing disseminates original, peer-reviewed research that is of interest to psychiatric and mental health care nurses. Manuscripts should be voluntary contributions submitted for the exclusive use of the Archives of Psychiatric Nursing. The purpose of the Archives of Psychiatric Nursing is to disseminate knowledge to guide educators, scientists, and practitioners of psychiatric and mental health nursing. Archives of Psychiatric Nursing considers psychiatric and mental health nursing in its broadest perspective, including theory, practice, education, research, and policy applications related to all ages, special populations, settings, mental health disciplines, and both the public and private sectors. Archives of Psychiatric Nursing is a medium for clinicianscholars to provide theoretical linkages among diverse areas of practice. Manuscripts are sought that will inform current practice and shape public policy for the delivery of psychiatric and mental health nursing services. Style The 6th edition of the American Psychological Association Publication Manual 2010 provides the format for text and references. Titles should be short. Abbreviations should be spelled out for the first time they are used. Symbols, other than standard statistical symbols, should be identified the first time they are used. The manuscript must be accompanied by an abstract of no more than 100 words; 35 key words are to be included on the abstract page. Tables and figures should be typed or drawn on one page and relative placement should be noted in the text. Procedure Direct editorial questions to Joyce J. Fitzpatrick, PhD, RN, FAAN, Elizabeth Brooks Ford Professor of Nursing, Frances Payne Bolton School of Nursing, Case Western Reserve University, 10900 Euclid Avenue, Cleveland, OH 44106. Accepted manuscripts become the property of the Archives of Psychiatric Nursing.

The editorial staff reserves the right to edit all manuscripts for its style and space requirements and for the purpose of clarity. The Editor of the Archives of Psychiatric Nursing will determine in which volume and issue accepted manuscripts will appear. Authors are responsible for obtaining permission for reproducing copyrighted materials and for sending a copy of that permission to the publisher before publication. Submission checklist You can use this list to carry out a final check of your submission before you send it to the journal for review. Please check the relevant section in this Guide for Authors for more details. Ethics in publishing Please see our information pages on Ethics in publishing and Ethical guidelines for journal publication. Studies in humans and animals If the work involves the use of human subjects, the author should ensure that the work described has been carried out in accordance with The Code of Ethics of the World Medical Association Declaration of Helsinki for experiments involving humans. The manuscript should be in line with the Recommendations for the Conduct, Reporting, Editing and Publication of Scholarly Work in Medical Journals and aim for the inclusion of representative human populations sex, age and ethnicity as per those recommendations. The terms sex and gender should be used correctly. Authors should include a statement in the manuscript that informed consent was obtained for experimentation with human subjects. The privacy rights of human subjects must always be observed. The sex of animals must be indicated, and where appropriate, the influence or association of sex on the results of the study. Declaration of interest All authors must disclose any financial and personal relationships with other people or organizations that could inappropriately influence bias their work. Authors must disclose any interests in two places 1.

A summary declaration of interest statement in the title page file if doubleblind or the manuscript file if singleblind. If there are no interests to declare then please state this Declarations of interest none. This summary statement will be ultimately published if the article is accepted. 2. Detailed disclosures as part of a separate Declaration of Interest form, which forms part of the journals official records. It is important for potential interests to be declared in both places and that the information matches. More information. Submission declaration and verification Submission of an article implies that the work described has not been published previously except in the form of an abstract, a published lecture or academic thesis, see Multiple, redundant or concurrent publication for more information, that it is not under consideration for publication elsewhere, that its publication is approved by all authors and tacitly or explicitly by the responsible authorities where the work was carried out, and that, if accepted, it will not be published elsewhere in the same form, in English or in any other language, including electronically without the written consent of the copyright holder. To verify originality, your article may be checked by the originality detection service Crossref Similarity Check. Use of inclusive language Inclusive language acknowledges diversity, conveys respect to all people, is sensitive to differences, and promotes equal opportunities. Content should make no assumptions about the beliefs or commitments of any reader; contain nothing which might imply that one individual is superior to another on the grounds of age, gender, race, ethnicity, culture, sexual orientation, disability or health condition; and use inclusive language throughout. These guidelines are meant as a point of reference to help identify appropriate language but are by no means exhaustive or definitive.

Authorship All authors should have made substantial contributions to all of the following 1 the conception and design of the study, or acquisition of data, or analysis and interpretation of data, 2 drafting the article or revising it critically for important intellectual content, 3 final approval of the version to be submitted. Changes to authorship Authors are expected to consider carefully the list and order of authors before submitting their manuscript and provide the definitive list of authors at the time of the original submission. Any addition, deletion or rearrangement of author names in the authorship list should be made only before the manuscript has been accepted and only if approved by the journal Editor. To request such a change, the Editor must receive the following from the corresponding author a the reason for the change in author list and b written confirmation email, letter from all authors that they agree with the addition, removal or rearrangement. In the case of addition or removal of authors, this includes confirmation from the author being added or removed. Only in exceptional circumstances will the Editor consider the addition, deletion or rearrangement of authors after the manuscript has been accepted. While the Editor considers the request, publication of the manuscript will be suspended. If the manuscript has already been published in an online issue, any requests approved by the Editor will result in a corrigendum. Article transfer service This journal is part of our Article Transfer Service. This means that if the Editor feels your article is more suitable in one of our other participating journals, then you may be asked to consider transferring the article to one of those. If you agree, your article will be transferred automatically on your behalf with no need to reformat. Please note that your article will be reviewed again by the new journal. More information.

Copyright Upon acceptance of an article, authors will be asked to complete a Journal Publishing Agreement see more information on this. An email will be sent to the corresponding author confirming receipt of the manuscript together with a Journal Publishing Agreement form or a link to the online version of this agreement. Subscribers may reproduce tables of contents or prepare lists of articles including abstracts for internal circulation within their institutions. Permission of the Publisher is required for resale or distribution outside the institution and for all other derivative works, including compilations and translations. If excerpts from other copyrighted works are included, the authors must obtain written permission from the copyright owners and credit the sources in the article. Elsevier has preprinted forms for use by authors in these cases. For gold open access articles Upon acceptance of an article, authors will be asked to complete an Exclusive License Agreement more information . Permitted third party reuse of gold open access articles is determined by the authors choice of user license. Author rights As an author you or your employer or institution have certain rights to reuse your work. More information. Elsevier supports responsible sharing Find out how you can share your research published in Elsevier journals. If the funding sources had no such involvement then this should be stated. Open access Please visit our Open Access page for more information. Elsevier Researcher Academy Researcher Academy is a free elearning platform designed to support early and midcareer researchers throughout their research journey. Feel free to use these free resources to improve your submission and navigate the publication process with ease. Language usage and editing services Please write your text in good English American or British usage is accepted, but not a mixture of these.

Authors who feel their English language manuscript may require editing to eliminate possible grammatical or spelling errors and to conform to correct scientific English may wish to use the English Language Editing service available from Elsevier's Author Services. Informed consent and patient details Studies on patients or volunteers require ethics committee approval and informed consent, which should be documented in the paper. Appropriate consents, permissions and releases must be obtained where an author wishes to include case details or other personal information or images of patients and any other individuals in an Elsevier publication. Written consents must be retained by the author but copies should not be provided to the journal. Only if specifically requested by the journal in exceptional circumstances for example if a legal issue arises the author must provide copies of the consents or evidence that such consents have been obtained. For more information, please review the Elsevier Policy on the Use of Images or Personal Information of Patients or other Individuals. Unless you have written permission from the patient or, where applicable, the next of kin, the personal details of any patient included in any part of the article and in any supplementary materials including all illustrations and videos must be removed before submission. Submission Our online submission system guides you stepwise through the process of entering your article details and uploading your files. The system converts your article files to a single PDF file used in the peerreview process. Editable files e.g., Word, LaTeX are required to typeset your article for final publication. All correspondence, including notification of the Editors decision and requests for revision, is sent by email. Submit your article Please submit your article via. NEW SUBMISSIONS Submission to this journal proceeds totally online and you will be guided stepwise through the creation and uploading of your files.

The system automatically converts your files to a single PDF file, which is used in the peerreview process. As part of the Your Paper Your Way service, you may choose to submit your manuscript as a single file to be used in the refereeing process. This can be a PDF file or a Word document, in any format or layout that can be used by referees to evaluate your manuscript. It should contain high enough quality figures for refereeing. If you prefer to do so, you may still provide all or some of the source files at the initial submission. Please note that individual figure files larger than 10 MB must be uploaded separately. References There are no strict requirements on reference formatting at submission. References can be in any style or format as long as the style is consistent. Use of DOI is highly encouraged. The reference style used by the journal will be applied to the accepted article by Elsevier at the proof stage. Note that missing data will be highlighted at proof stage for the author to correct. Formatting requirements There are no strict formatting requirements but all manuscripts must contain the essential elements needed to convey your manuscript, for example Abstract, Keywords, Introduction, Materials and Methods, Results, Conclusions, Artwork and Tables with Captions. Divide the article into clearly defined sections. Figures and tables embedded in text Please ensure the figures and the tables included in the single file are placed next to the relevant text in the manuscript, rather than at the bottom or the top of the file. The corresponding caption should be placed directly below the figure or table. Permissions The author is responsible for obtaining written permission to use any copyrighted materials, including illustrations, photographs, tables, and any content taken from Web sites. Documentation of permission to reprint copyrighted materials should be submitted electronically when the article is submitted.

Additional information on securing permissions can be found at. Peer review This journal operates a double blind review process. All contributions will be initially assessed by the editor for suitability for the journal. Papers deemed suitable are then typically sent to a minimum of two independent expert reviewers to assess the scientific quality of the paper. The Editor is responsible for the final decision regarding acceptance or rejection of articles. The Editors decision is final. More information on types of peer review. Doubleblind review This journal uses doubleblind review, which means the identities of the authors are concealed from the reviewers, and vice versa. More information is available on our website. To facilitate this, please include the following separately Title page with author details This should include the title, authors names, affiliations, acknowledgements and any Declaration of Interest statement, and a complete address for the corresponding author including an email address. Blinded manuscript no author details The main body of the paper including the references, figures, tables and any acknowledgements should not include any identifying information, such as the authors names or affiliations. REVISED SUBMISSIONS Use of word processing software Regardless of the file format of the original submission, at revision you must provide us with an editable file of the entire article. Keep the layout of the text as simple as possible. Most formatting codes will be removed and replaced on processing the article. The electronic text should be prepared in a way very similar to that of conventional manuscripts see also the Guide to Publishing with Elsevier . See also the section on Electronic artwork. To avoid unnecessary errors you are strongly advised to use the spellcheck and grammarcheck functions of your word processor. Article structure Subdivision unnumbered sections Divide your article into clearly defined sections.
